Creating 80 new jobs in Coffee County

Governor announces Ben E. Keith plans to open Alabama distribution center

Governor Kay Ivey announced Wednesday, June 26, that Ben E. Keith, a major food and beverage distribution company, plans to invest $100 million to open an advanced foodservice distribution center in Coffee County.

The facility will also serve as the company's Southeast Regional Headquarters.

The project will create 80 direct jobs over the next five years and provide an economic boost to New Brockton, a town of around 1,100 people in Southeastern Alabama. Ben E. Keith also plans to expand its manufacturing facilities at Kelley Foods, located in nearby Elba.

"We welcome the decision by Ben E. Keith, one of the nation's largest family owned distribution companies, to significantly expand its presence in Alabama with a new, state-of-the-art facility in Coffee County," Governor Ivey said. "The investment in the New Brockton facility will not only create good jobs in that community but also provide a springboard for this first-rate company to continue to grow in Alabama."

Fort Worth, Texas-based Ben E. Keith's new Alabama facility will span 425,000 square feet and will be designed to accommodate future expansions up to 1 million square feet, positioning the company to expand its distribution activities in the Southeast.

This artist rendering shows the tentative plans for the new Ben E. Keith distribution center to be constructed in Coffee County, near New Brockton. It will be just off U.S. Highway 84 in the area of New Brockton, which Governor Kay Ivey said will provide a direct economic boost for that small town. Ben E. Keith also announced it plans to expand its manufacturing facilities at Kelley Foods in Elba.

Camp E.X.C.E.L. students try jalapeños

From eager anticipation to the fiery reaction, some Camp E.X.C.E.L. students had their first experience with jalapeños Monday afternoon, June 24, at the Giving Garden of Elba. The students involved with the Elba Parks and Recreation's summer program, Camp

E.X.C.E.L., visited the Giving Garden Monday afternoon to help pick produce to be donated to the Elba Food Bank this week. Among the items harvested Monday was jalapeños, and many of the students had never tried a jalapeño. As evidenced by the left photo, it was an immediate reaction when that fiery flavor hit those taste buds! See more photos from the students' experience at the Giving Garden on Page 2 of today's paper.

Elba City Council adopts lodging tax ordinance

by Jack West, Intern

The Elba City Council approved Friday, July 5, to be a holiday for city employees this year. This will accommodate the July 4th holiday.

The additional holiday was first suggested in a letter from Governor Kay Ivey, on June 12, and it was approved unanimously by the city council during the Monday night, June 24, council meeting.

The offices that are essential to the safety of the public, like the police department, will remain open on July 5, but those working will receive holiday pay.

Also during Monday night's meeting, the council adopted a 4 percent lodging tax ordinance to be administered on people or businesses that rent out or furnish rooms for fewer than 30 days. That lodging tax will go into effect on September 1, 2019.

The Council chose to table another ordinance regarding reimbursement for educational classes for future mayors or councilmembers. The stated intention of the ordinance was to encourage elected officials to become certified municipal officers.

The ordinance was tabled so councilmembers and staff could take more time and ensure that the money reimbursed to officials could not be misused. The ordinance will be considered again at the Council's next meeting scheduled for Monday, July 8, at 5:30 p.m.

Prior to the council meeting, a public hearing was conducted on two properties set for demolition due to being deemed unsafe and thus in violation of the city's nuisance ordinance. The two properties were 1043 Morrow Avenue and 672 Lee Street.

No one was at the public hearing to speak on the properties.

During the meeting, council members voted to move forward with demolition on the properties/structures, recommended by the city's code enforcement officer.

COFFEE COUNTY DEPUTY RECEIVES STATE AND NATIONAL VFW AWARDS...Enterprise VFW [Veterans of Foreign Wars] Post 6683 Commander Otis Smith (right) attended the Coffee County Commission meeting Monday morning, June 24, to make several award presentations on the state and national levels to Coffee County Sheriff's Deputy Sgt. Jace Holley (left). Smith said Holley had been nominated and chosen as the EMT of the Year and the Officer of the Year for the State of Alabama's VFW. He was presented a certificate of commendation for each award. Smith then said that because Sgt. Holley had received the Alabama awards for EMT and Officer of the Year, he also was nominated for the national awards. On Monday morning, Smith presented the national awards to Holley as well from the National Association of Veterans of Foreign Wars president BJ Lawrence. Holley was awarded the National EMT and National Deputy Sheriff of the Year awards for his "dedicated and selfless service to the Coffee County Sheriff's Department and citizens of his community." Joining Sgt Holley in receiving the awards was his wife, Sarah Holley. His parents Dwight and Kathy Holley also were in attendance for the award presentations.

tem to add a fourth [SRO] for the county schools. He said currently there are three officers covering the schools, but the desire with the growth in New Brockton is to add a fourth so that an SRO would be on each campus.

New Brockton's elementary and high schools have two separate campuses. The other schools [Zion Chapel and Kinston] have all grades on the same campus.

Commissioners voted unanimously to approve the contract with the Coffee County School System for a fourth SRO under the same terms as the other three officers.

Coffee County's environmental services coordinator Mike Thornton told commissioners during Monday's meeting that he had planned on including the purchase of a motor grader for the landfill in next year's budget; however, he said one had hit the state surplus inventory last week that was an unusual opportunity for purchase. Thornton said he and county engineer Marty Lentz had looked at this motor grader and determined it would be a good buy for the county, if commissioners would approve going ahead and purchasing it now.

Thornton said he had the funds in his budget to purchase the motor grader from the state surplus in the amount of $120,000. Commissioners approved his request.

E911 chairman Dean Blair brought before commissioners several recommendations regarding board appointments for E911.

Blair said Charles Webb has decided to retire early from his appointment [that term expires in 2020], and it was the recommendation for Blair to shift into that at-large spot. Blair shifting to the at-large seat opened up his a 4-year term from Enterprise, and it was suggested that Adair Lee fill that spot.

Further, Blair said it was the recommendation to have Dale Grimes fill the at-large seat being vacated by Gloria Webb, and for Grant Lyons

"The only difference between death and taxes is that death doesn't get worse every time Congress meets". -Will Rogers

The list of candidates for the U. S. Senate seat now held by Democratic Senator Doug Jones is beginning to look as long as the array of candidates for the battle for the presidency of the United States. Both offices have first-time politician incumbents which is probably what encourages a bunch of newcomers to show interest as candidates. One expected candidate, Senate Pro Tem Del Marsh (Republican), announced recently that he would not be a candidate for the office.

We have noticed that President Trump, while continuing his unorthodox politics, is voicing 'political' positions on some issues. While this is not his nature, we are sure that aides are encouraging him to play the political game a bit more . . . at least through the 2020 political campaign. In spite of over twenty Democrats vying for the presidential office, Trump is still considered the favorite to win another term. If nothing else helps Trump it will be the lashing that Democratic candidates are giving each other. All that negative stuff will come back to haunt whichever Democrat makes it to the general election in November 2020.

About the same could be said for Senator Doug Jones. He is doing a lot of one-on-one politicking way ahead of the upcoming election. He is also working with the news media to ensure his 'do good' work gets noticed by the voters. To his credit, the man is trying to be a good senator. However, we suspect he will face someone other than Republican Roy Moore in the general election . . . someone with less baggage. So, Jones needs to be touching all bases as often as possible to have any chance of winning re-election.

Auburn University is without a president at this time. The sudden resignation of the incumbent, Steven Leath, last week has left lots of folks waiting for "the rest of the story". This was too smooth and too sudden to have been just one person's decision, leaving many to suggest he was asked to resign or at least given an 'or else' ultimatum. With Leath expressing pride over what has happened in his two years at the helm, and trustees praising his leadership . . . when it looks like a duck, walks like a duck and quacks like a duck . . . folks, it is very likely a duck!

Ben E. Keith (Kelley Foods) has officially announced what was wildly rumored for months in their announcement to build a new distribution facility. The official announcement also included a statement that they planned to expand the manufacturing facility at their Elba location. This move will be good for all of Coffee County and will solidify their commitment to maintaining their presence in Coffee County. We salute Ben E. Keith management for their wisdom!

A whole bunch of city officials in Chicago are out to prove over and over the stories that politicians are crooked. News reports tally that since 1972, as many as 30 aldermen (councilmen) have been convicted of crimes connected to their official duties. At least two more are on the carpet right now after raids by federal agents. A lot of good folks make huge sacrifices to serve their community, state and country. One of the negative things they face daily is the image created by people like that bunch in Chicago who have been caught with their hand in the cookie jar.

It was tragic to read about the seven motorcyclists in New Hampshire who were killed in a collision with a truck. What makes it more maddening are the repeated comments about the truck driver having been arrested for drunk driving at least twice before. No one has said he was drunk during this tragic event, but lots of folks assume he was at it again. Either way, seven people riding to an event to help other folks are now dead. Plus whatever the official outcome is, the truck driver's life will forever be haunted by the happening.

The Elba Parks and Recreation Department's Camp E.X.C.E.L. has kept students busy this summer learning about different walks of life.

On Monday afternoon, June 24, the students helped out at the Giving Garden of Elba. They assisted Restoration 154 volunteers and Coffee County Master Gardeners in picking jalapenos that were to be donated to the Elba Food Bank for distribution.

This adventure taught the students about growing produce for food consumption. For many, it was a first time experience with the hot peppers, and they found out very quickly that a jalapeno definitely lives up to its hype for being H.O.T.!

The students constantly are enjoying adventures such as this, and not only are they gaining educational knowledge, but they also are having loads of fun along the way! Kudos to all that are helping make this year's Camp E.X.C.E.L. a huge success.

Beverly Daniels-Hamilton is director of Camp E.X.C.E.L., and Greg Hanchey is director of the Elba Parks and Recreation.

"When we acquired Kelley Foods in 2016, we saw it as our gateway to expand in the Southeast to better serve new and existing customers and to uncover new opportunities," said Mike Sweet, president of Ben E. Keith Foods. "We are deeply committed to the communities of Alabama in which we live, work and serve, and we look forward to many more years of shared success."

Construction on the facility in New Brockton will begin by December 2019, with a completion date by December 2021. Ben E. Keith Foods continues to expand its market area in the Southeast and the added capacity will allow it to better service customers, while staying committed to the local community.

"Alabama can offer distribution companies an extensive infrastructure network and a highly motivated workforce to make their operations a success," said Greg Canfield, secretary of the Alabama Department of Commerce. "We consider it an economic development priority to recruit job-creating projects in the state's rural counties, so we're thrilled that a high-performance company like Ben E. Keith has selected Coffee County for a project with substantial growth potential."

Established in 1906, Ben E. Keith Foods is the nation's eighth largest broad line foodservice distributor and operates today with eight divisions shipping to 15 states throughout the country. Ben E. Keith entered Alabama in 2016, when it acquired Elba's Kelley Foods, a homegrown business dating back to 1957. That operation today has 230 workers.

"Coffee County is proud to continue our relationship with Ben E. Keith and honored to serve as the site of their Southeast Regional Headquarters. It is always gratifying when our existing corporate partners make such a substantial new investment in our community," said County Commission Chairman Dean Smith. "Ben E. Keith has been an outstanding corporate citizen and their expanded presence in Coffee County will provide a significant number of excellent job opportunities for our citizens."

"Ben E. Keith has an impeccable reputation and is a perfect fit for Coffee County and for Alabama," added Jonathan Tullios, executive director of the Wiregrass Economic Development Corp. "We are proud of the efforts of our state and local elected officials to secure this project, which will create quality jobs in Southeast Alabama."

Summertime sun safety is very important

With most people spending more time outdoors in late spring and summer, the Alabama Department of Public Health reminds people of all ages to protect their exposed skin from the sun's ultraviolet (UV) rays and practice sun safety.

Continued skin damage over time increases a person's risk of developing skin cancer, and UV rays can also damage eyes, which increases the risk of cataracts. Unprotected skin exposure, either from the sun or artificial sources like tanning beds, can cause irreversible damage in as little as 15 minutes.

It is very important to not only protect your skin but also be aware of any changes. A change in your skin is the most common sign of skin cancer. Remember, not all skin cancers look the same. This could be a new growth, a sore that doesn't heal, or a change in a mole.

Skin cancer is the most common cancer in the United States. Research shows that the number of people diagnosed with melanoma, the deadliest form of skin cancer, has risen sharply over the past three decades. In men and women ages 50 and older, the number of people diagnosed with melanoma increased 3 percent per year from 2006 to 2015.

Following these recommendations helps protect yourself and your family.

Sunscreen

- It is important to use sunscreen every day, even if it is cloudy.

- Choose a water-resistant sunscreen and lip balm or lipstick with an SPF of 30 or higher.

- Apply at least 1 ounce of sunscreen 15 to 30 minutes before going outdoors. Reapply every hour if swimming or sweating.

- Avoid using sunscreen products that have expired.

Shade

- Seek shade to avoid exposure to UVA and UVB sun rays.

- Limit exposure to the sun during peak hours of 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. when the sun rays are most intense.

- Be careful around reflective surfaces that can increase the risk of being sunburned such as water, snow and sand.

- Keep babies younger than 6 months old completely covered and in the shade.

Protective Clothing and Accessories

- Wear protective clothing including long sleeves and pants made from tightly woven fabric.

- Wear sunglasses that are made to block 100 percent of UVA and UVB rays.

- Wear a hat with a wide brim to protect face, head, ears and neck.

Tanning

- Avoid tanning and recreational sunbathing, including tanning beds.

- Both can cause skin cancer and wrinkles.

Mackenzie Allen is going to help move her sister into college, but first, she had to stop in Elba.

Allen, age 16, was born in Texas but currently lives in Virginia Beach, Virginia.

"I come to Elba at least two, three times a year," she said.

While here, Allen stays with family and enjoys hunting, fishing, and relaxing.

"It's basically a relaxation trip," she said.

Allen said even though she will only be in town for a couple of weeks, she cherishes all of her time here.

"I normally leave [Elba] happy, but I'm sad that I leave because everybody is so close here," she said. "It's basically like one big, happy family."

Since she is a junior in high school, Allen is already considering attending the University of South Alabama and enrolling in its Air Force program.

"I just love this state," she said.

Earlier this week, Allen enjoyed volunteering to help at the Giving Garden of Elba.

PASTOR'S CORNER

WILL JORDAN, PASTOR
NEWBIA BAPTIST CHURCH

There was a little old cleaning woman that went to the local church. When the invitation was given at the end of the service, she went forward wanting to become a member. The pastor listened as she told him how she had accepted Jesus and wanted to be baptized and become a member of the church.

The pastor thought to himself, "Oh my, she is so unkempt, even smells a little, and her fingernails are not clean. She picks up garbage, cleans toilets - what would the members think of her?"

He told her that she needed to go home and pray about it and then decide. The following week, here she came again. She told the pastor that she had prayed about it and still wanted to be baptized. "I have passed this church for so long. It is so beautiful, and I truly want to become a member." Again the pastor told her to go home and pray some more.

A few weeks later while out eating at the restaurant, the pastor saw the little old lady. He did not want her to think that he was ignoring her so he approached her and said, "I have not seen you for a while. Is everything all right?" "Oh yes," she said. "I talked with Jesus, and he told me not to worry about becoming a member of your church." "He did?" said the pastor. "Oh, yes," she replied. "He said even He hasn't been able to get into your church yet, and He's been trying for years."

Now, I am not sure who authored this story, but I do know it is right on the mark for many of our churches today.

I was actually told by a deacon of a church that "they are gaining membership, but it was folks who didn't have money." Needless to say, I was speechless. Even though I walked away from that situation, and although it was some time ago, I still think of that comment, and I am still flabbergasted that one would say such a thing.

As a pastor, believe me, I know we must have funds to do the work of the kingdom, but we must always remember that God will provide for our needs. I have certainly seen this truth come into play in my church.

How many times does the Bible tell us about showing partiality? Well, there are at least sixteen references in the Old Testament and another fourteen in the New Testament discussing partiality or favoritism. Looking at Job 34: 19 we read; "Yet He is not partial to princes, nor does He regard the rich more than the poor; for they are all the work of His hands." We are also told in James 2: 1-6 "My brethren, do not hold the Lord of glory with partiality. For if there should come into your assembly a man with gold rings, in fine apparel, and there should also come in a poor man in filthy clothes, and you pay attention to the one wearing the fine clothes and say to him, 'you sit here in a good place', and say to the poor man, 'you stand there', 'or sit here at my footstool', have you not shown partiality among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts? Listen, my beloved brethren: Has God not chosen the poor of this world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom which He promised to those who love Him? But you have dishonored the poor man, do not the rich oppress you and drag you into the courts?"

I encourage you to look around your church, and your community. Are there people who do not go to church because they think the Christians of the church will judge them? Or perhaps they do not have fancy clothes, a nice car or a healthy bank account and do not feel worthy.

Listen, we are all God's children, and need love and respect from others. If your church falls into the category of being cliquish, stand-offish, or judgmental of others then it is time to change. Most of us will not go somewhere if we don't feel welcome or wanted. Church is no different; we must get past this and present the Gospel of Jesus Christ to EVERYONE. It is not just a request, it is a command from our Lord.

Health Fair held at Elba Senior Citizens Center last week

by Jack West, Intern

LHC HomeCare of South Alabama, in conjunction with the Troy Regional Medical Center, held a health fair Wednesday, June 19, at the Elba Senior Citizens Center.

Samelia Williamson, a patient care coordinator at LHC, routinely comes to check blood pressure at the senior center, but this is the first time they have done a health fair like this.

"It's nice to help out and do what I can here," she said.

Tables were set up at the event with various brochures and information packets about what treatment and home care options are available for senior citizens.

"We are trying to give them some outlook on what to do," said Donna Falls, director of the senior center.

According to Falls, some senior citizens come out of surgeries or treatments at the hospital but need help continuing their treatments at home.

"We are giving them people that they can call," she said. "They know who is going to treat them right."

This is especially helpful for family members of senior citizens since it adds another trustworthy person into the situation.

There are rough plans to hold another health fair later in the year, but not on a regular basis.

"We may have it again in a couple of months as we get closer to Christmas," Falls said. "This is just the first time."

Blood pressure checks were part of the health fair

ELBA ATTORNEY SUSPENDED

Elba attorney Mart Wayne Marler is currently suspended from the practice of law in the State of Alabama. Marler has received a twenty-six (26) month suspension, effective July 1, 2020, to run consecutively to his current suspension from the practice of law. The Supreme Court entered its order based on the Report and Order of the Disciplinary Board of the Alabama State Bar, suspending Marler after he was found guilty of violating Rules 5.5(a)(1) [Unauthorized Practice of Law], and 8.4 (d) and (g) [Misconduct], Ala. R. Prof. C. After Marler was suspended from the practice of law in the State of Alabama which became effective January 1, 2017, Marler formed the Marty Marler Land and Title Company, LLC, where he engaged in preparing legal documents for the title company and its customers. Marler subsequently admitted he engaged in the unauthorized practice of law during his suspension by preparing property deeds for various clients of his title company.

Our grandson Lawson has over a thousand LEGO blocks, and every time he comes over to the house wants me to sit and watch him build new creations. Evert once in a while I will build a small creature of my own, but his are sometimes two and three-feet tall and actually look like robots and dinosaurs. Hey, maybe we have a budding engineer or architect in the family!

For what it is worth....

 The Coffee County 10 and Under All-Stars won their district tournament last week and will now move on to state. The team consists of players and coaches from Elba and New Brockton, and with a recent change in Dixie Youth regulations, didn't have to compete against bigger teams from Dothan, Enterprise and Troy. The change was good in that it gave the smaller teams something to play for, and here in Elba and New Brockton the players are headed to state. Congratulations!

 The Coffee County all-stars in softball didn't get the break that the baseball teams enjoyed and when the tournaments began they were right there competing against teams from places like Troy, Enterprise, Greenville and Eufaula. The teams played hard and at times held their own, but the skill level was too wide for the county teams to overcome and they were all eliminated. Nobody wants to lose, but the competition will do the girls good as they grow up and compete with the same teams at the high school level.

 I watch the Atlanta Braves almost every night and can't really figure out if they are that good at the plate or if the opposing teams are lacking quality pitching. I agree the Braves are scoring runs and have a big group of younger players that play with intensity and have the desire to win, but some of the teams they have defeated have the worst bullpens I have ever seen. I guess maybe it is just the 'perfect storm' for the Braves as they chase another division title.

 In closing... the Coffee County Lake is now open until midnight on Saturdays in an attempt to let the fisherman beat the heat, and enjoy the pastime they love. The best time to come to the lake is obviously early in the morning or late in the evening. However, on weekends the lake is open late and hopefully everyone will take advantage of the long hours and wet their hooks.

Brantley and Kinston dominate 1A all-state teams

The Alabama Sports Writers Association recently released its selections for the 2019 high school 'All-State' softball teams, and in Class 1A the statewide team was dominated by players from Brantley High School and Kinston High School.

Brantley placed four players on the 'first team' led by senior Kassidy Wilcox, who was also named the state's 'Player of the Year' and 'Hitter of the Year' in the 1A ranks. Lady Bulldog teammates joining her as first team selections included sophomore pitcher Lauren Hudson, junior outfielder Emory Bush and senior designated hitter Hannah Sims. Senior infielder Olivia Jones and freshman utility player Kayden Dunn received 'second team' honors.

Kinston placed two Lady Bulldogs on the 'first team' as junior infielder Courtney Lunsford and freshman designated hitter Faith Peters grabbed statewide honors.

Wilcox, a signee with the University of South Alabama, played in 52 games during her senior season and batted .540, with 67 hits, 49 runs scored and 84 runs-batted-in. The four-time all-state pick also belted 10 doubles and 20 home runs to help lead the Lady Bulldogs to a runner-up finish at the state tournament. Wilcox also displayed speed on the bases, as she was successful in all 8 steal attempts on the bases.

Hudson stepped inside the circle as the Lady Bulldogs' #1 pitcher after the departure of four-year starter Leanna Johnson, and quickly established herself as one of the state's top pitchers as she posted a record of 35 wins and only 9 losses, with 1 save. She pitched in a total of 50 games, logged 228 and 2/3 innings, and allowed 244 hits and 99 earned runs, while striking out 242 and walking 49. The Lady Bulldog ace posted an earned run average of 3.03.

Bush, a three-year starter in the outfield, played in 53 games during the season and batted .482, with 67 hits, 77 runs scored, 21 runs-batted-in, 7 doubles and 50 stolen bases in 53 attempts.

Sims was a standout at shortstop for the Lady Bulldogs, played in 50 games and batted .358 with 48 hits, 47 runs scored and 55 runs-batted-in. The hard hitting senior hit 10 doubles, 2 triples and 11 home runs, and stole 7 bases in 8 attempts.

Jones, the Lady Bulldogs first-baseman, played in 53 games and batted .444 with 67 hits, 67 runs scored and 61 runs-batted-in. The sweet swinging lefty recorded 15 doubles, 1 triple and 2 home runs, and was successful in 12 of 14 steal attempts.

Dunn, who held down the hot corner at third base, played in 54 games and batted .418 with 64 hits, 32 runs scored and 51 runs-batted-in. The freshman standout also recorded 10 doubles and 11 home runs and was successful in all 6 steal attempts.

Lunsford, a five-year starter at Kinston, was the Lady Bulldogs biggest weapon both in the infield and inside the circle, and shined at the batters box. She batted .560 for the season with 13 doubles, 4 home runs, 40 runs-batted-in and 36 runs scored. Her on-base percentage was .651 and she was successful in 9 of 10 stolen base attempts.

LBW Community College Foundation gearing up for Sept. 11th golf tourney

The LBW Community College Foundation is gearing up for the 14th annual LBWCC/Camellia City Classic Golf Tournament on Sept. 11 at Cambrian Ridge, a Robert Trent Jones Golf Trail, in Greenville.

"We are in the process of lining up sponsors for the event, with all the proceeds to be used for scholarships, dual enrollment, student activities, and special projects of LBWCC," said Dr. Arlene Davis, event coordinator.

"Teams and individuals who want to play in this year's tournament need to register by Sept. 3."

In addition to helping raise scholarship funds, golfers will also be competing for prizes for the top three teams, closest to the pin, longest drive, and hole-in-one.

"We are so grateful to Greenville Chevrolet for providing the automobile each year and ASE Credit Union for additional hole-in-one prizes," said Davis.

Cost is $150 for an individual entry and $600 for a team of four. Deadline for entries for sponsors, teams, and individuals is Sept. 3.

"This is a fun day for such a worthy cause. These funds provide beneficial opportunities for students of LBWCC."

For the Sept. 11 event, the driving range will open at 11 a.m. Tournament activity begins at 1 p.m. with a four-person scramble.

The LBWCC Foundation is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit charitable organization supporting college programs and scholarships.
